

WHY EDGE?

We recruit only the best people with an excellent pedigree and a track record in delivering real results.

We are always looking for the right people to push Edge Testing further in the right direction.

But what can Edge offer you?

Edge Testing Solutions is an independent software testing provider. We help organisations ensure their systems are usable, robust, digitally compatible and work as expected. Edge was founded in 2007 and has quickly built up a strong reputation as a market leader in the software testing industry.

We at Edge are fascinated by new technologies and thrive on new challenges. In 2013, Edge launched the innovative Digital Test Hub which specialises in low cost, on demand remote testing for digital entertainment, ecommerce, enterprise, Internet of Things, gambling, mobile & apps and video games. Edge also boast a well-equipped Open Device Lab for website and app testing and development. At Edge we are fully committed to our staff, we create a positive, friendly working environment and encourage all our staff to be actively involved in the future success of the company by contributing ideas and collateral.

Testimonials

"Edge gives young people leaving university a chance to work in and gain experience in a variety of different areas within testing." Emma Fitzpatrick

"Edge are a company that makes use of everyone's skillset and allow people to gain experience and exposure at a rate that is suitable to them. The thing I like most about working for Edge is the fast paced nature of the business that will always provide me with opportunities to gain more experience and knowledge and allow myself to progress through my career." Liam Murdoch

"Every employee's voice gets heard and opinions are taken into considerations." Sharon Robertson

"As Edge grew, I grew. I joined as a Test Analyst in a company with under 10 employees and now we are 100+ and I have risen to Service Delivery Manager." Liam Rankine

"Even though you may spend long periods of time on a client site, you still feel like a part of the team at Edge." Karen Campbell
